Course Description: Drawing skills are fun, creative and an excellent exercise in observation for the brain. In this class we will focus solely on the skill of drawing. This class is for the advanced artist who wants to improve their skills. In the first semester, we will use graphite pencils and charcoal. In the second semester, we will use ink with more advanced drawing techniques such as washes gain confidence in our drawing skills. We will build on skills previously learned in shading and highlighting in both media with the goal of a realistic drawing. We will complete what we can in class, but students will be expected to work outside of class to complete drawings and sketchbook assignments.

Resources:

Hobby Lobby has sales from time to time on art supplies at 50% off. Michaels will let you use an educator discount as well as stack coupons in-store even on sale items.

Dickblick.com is one of my favorite websites to order from and they often have some pretty good sales. Amazon is also a good resource.

Brands I recommend:

Drawing tools: Koh I Noor, Derwent, General's Kimberly, Faber Castell, Castle Arts, Prismacolor Turquoise. Drawing paper: Strathmore, Canson for pencil drawing; mixed media paper from Canson for ink drawing; spiral bound pads are preferred.
