

Psychology: A Christian Perspective

Instructor: Selynda Vass; prautusok@gmail.com

Grades: 9th-12th

Fees: $30/month tuition; plus $10 PER semester supply fee

Text: Psychology: A Christian Perspective by Dr. Tim Rice

Course Description: To develop a greater knowledge of ourselves and other people and enrich our understanding of healthy relationships through the study of psychology. This class will enrich the student's understanding of historical figures in the history of the field of psychology, how to filter psychological theories through a Christian worldview, and how to apply helpful studies to our interactions with others.