

Classic Tales, Literature for Littles

Instructor: Sara Fisher

Grade: K-3rd

Fees: $35/month tuition plus a one-time $20 per semester supply/materials fee

Course Description: Reading/listening to classic literature is one of the greatest teaching tools for children. Classic tales will introduce students to rich vocabulary, build imagination, and help develop the love of reading. In this class, we will read books (Frog and Toad, Caps for Sale, Charlotte's Web, A Bear Called Paddington, plus a few more) and we will also look at classic poetry to memorize and recite each month. Literature for Littles would not be complete without hands-on crafts and activities!
